GAS PRICE ADVANCED FOR LOCAL CONSUMERS

Price Will be 30 Cents
Per Thousand With
3 Cents Discount

NOTICE ISSUED TODAY

Greensboro Gas Company
Publishes Fact-Present
Rate in Effect Few Years

Proof that the Mail's source of information was good when several weeks ago it announced the intention of the Greensboro Gas company to raise the price of gas in Charleroi, was verified today when official notice was given that the rate will be raised to 30 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The new rate will go into effect, as stated by the notice printed in another column after the reading of the meters in April, which means the first of May.

According to the new rating domestic consumers will pay 30 cents per thousand cubic feet with a discount of three cents per thousand on bills paid on or before the 10th of each month.

At the present time Charleroi consumers are paying 27 cents per thousand cubic feet, with a reduction of two cents on every thousand for prompt payment. This rate has been in effect only three or four years.

The former rate was 25 cents per thousand cubic feet with ten per cent of a discount on the whole bill for prompt payment. When the increase was declared some protest was made but not of such nature as to have any effect.

NO FEES FOR COAL AND IRON POLICE

In an opinion handed down by Judge McIlvaine in court at Washington Wednesday it is decided that coal and iron police cannot collect fees as constables, although they can act in that capacity. The decision is based on the fact that the coal and iron police are private officers, paid by a private employer, although sworn in as peace officers of the state.

The case was based on a suit against Samuel J. Ansil and John Channing, coal and iron policemen employed by the Vesta Coal company, which was brought by H. B. Lake constable at California. Ansil and Channing were found guilty of extortion in collecting constable fees and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 each, costs and give security for the payment of the same within ten days. The suit was brought more for the purpose of determining the status of the case than for the purpose of punishing the principals.

by Campbell Heirs on Monongahela Property

Between 60 and 70 suits in ejectment have been filed by Martha Campbell of Charleroi and others claimants to a large part of the First Ward, Monongahela, comprising the T. H. Williams addition. Six suits were filed Thursday. A large part of this property is improved, houses have been built on it and now by these actions the title to a large number of properties are questioned. The defendants in the actions just filed are Frances Webb, William R. Copeland, Juli P. Rejein, Harriet J. Roth, George Bernart, Nancy Forsythe and Sarah Ann Hodgson.

PROMISE FOR BILL

Believed Public Utilities
Measure Will Get
Through

HEARING ON TUESDAY

Harrisburg, April 11.—Although the anti-administration forces are putting up a vicious fight on the public utilities bill, charging that corporations have been taken care of in it, and that the people will get the short end if the bill passes in its present form, it is probable that the measure will get through the house all right, with possibly some amendments. The bill will come up for a hearing Tuesday.

The house amended the administration bill abolishing the factory inspector's department and creating the department of labor and industry, and passed it on to third reading, and it will probably come up for final action Monday. By the amendments 58 inspectors will be created, but the appointment of the entire force will be discretionary with the commissioner of labor.

The semi-monthly pay bill to apply to all the state passed the senate finally and now goes up to the governor. The Steele bill to provide public comfort buildings in all towns above 12,000 population will come up for final passage next week. The law and order committee has reported favorably the bill prohibiting saloons from being open on Memorial, Thanksgiving and Christmas days.

Senator J. Carter Judson has succeeded in resurrecting his bill from the committee in which it was buried, which rips out of office the directors of the poor of Washington county. The senator charges that some Washington county politicians tried to pull one over on him and bury his bill without giving it a chance to be heard in the open. It will now travel the regular route, and

GIVES TESTIMONY IN LIQUOR CASES

District Attorney Richard G. Miller Appears at Pittsburg as Complainant Against
Wholesale Applicants

In the Allegheny county court Thursday at Pittsburg District Attorney Richard G. Miller of Washington county testified that fully 38 out of every 40 men convicted of illegal liquor selling purchased their supplies from Allegheny county dealers. His testimony and that of five prisoners taken from this county to appeal in license court caused considerable of a sensation. An attorney representing the Anti-Saloon league startled the court by announcing that someone had broken into his safe and stolen evidence which he expected to use against a wholesaler accused of selling and shipping liquor into Washington county.

District Attorney Miller called the court's attention to the methods of certain dealers in selling liquor in this county. The five prisoners from this county were in charge of Deputy Sheriffs S. Hornbake and H. K. Sarver.

One applicant, John G. Allen, of Northside when quizzed by Washington countians admitted that he purchased many thousand barrels of beer from the Zelt Brewing company at Washington, and that most of it was re-shipped into that district, but denied having agents out. The applicant said he sent liquor direct to the customers who had sent their orders to him and paid for their goods in advance. Four of the five prisoners testified to having procured liquor from Allen. "Jimmy" West, a prisoner testified that he had been employed by Allen to distribute circulars and order blanks for him, for which he received $6 a week.

Paul Wuesthoff of the PPaul Wuesthoff company admitted on cross-examination by District Attorney Miller that he had agents in Washington county and paid them a per cent commission on all orders they sent to his company. The case against the wholesale dealers were not finished but are to be concluded today.

Cortlandt Meyers of Tremont Temple, Boston, Mass., will make an address.

Mrs. E. G. Stanley and Mrs. Joseph Shilling will attend from the Charleroi Baptist church, and it is likely others will go from here.

Bridge Bids Are Opened

Sixteen Structures Washed
Away by Last Summer's
Floods to be Rebuilt

Bids were opened in the office of County Controller John H. Moffitt Thursday for the erection of 16 county bridges. About 20 or 30 bids were in, and it took the greater part of the afternoon to open and tabulate them. Each bidder states when he can start the work on the bridges, he bids upon, agreeing to forfeit $10 a day for every day held back. These bridges are to replace bridges washed out by the floods of last summer.

DUCKS ARE NUMEROUS

Hunters Tempted to Lawbreaking the Day
After Season Closes

ARE SEEN ALONG RIVER

In line with the general inconsistency of things fine game ducks are to be seen along the Monongahela river this morning in flocks, and the game season for ducks is over just one day. Hunters who during the season were unable to bag duck in any quantity this morning saw the ducks and shuddered—shuddered and looked uneasy. Only on Thursday the duck season expired, and why the ducks should show up in such numbers this morning is a problem that scientists and prophets will have to wrestle with. Enthusiastic hunters have enough to do to wrestle against their inclination to go hunting, when they know the state police are here.

BOUGHT LOCAL MINE

Large Holdings of Pittsburg
Plate Glass Company
Transferred

Over a million dollars is involved in the transfer of all the lands, coal, property, rights of way, mining rights and privileges composing the mining property known as the Charleroi Coal Works, at Charleroi, to the Carnegie Coal company, according to the deed which was filed in the county recorder's office Thursday. The total consideration was $1,002,600.48.

Generally, the property consists of the various seams of coal and the coal land owned by the Pittsburg Plate Glass company in Fallowfield township and small parcels of land in Charleroi and North Charleroi borough; also seven lots in the Corrin and Suttman plan, Charleroi, and a tippie site. Certain mooring rights on the river are included in the transfer, together with a small parcel of land fronting on the Monongahela river.

Another deed was filed wherein the Carnegie Coal company conveys to the Pittsburg Plate Glass company for a consideration of $1 certain coal stratum in Fallowfield township.

The sale of the Plate Glass coal to the Carnegie Coal company was authorized at a meeting of the stockholders of the glass company held in February. In connection with the sale and filed with the deed is a purchase money mortgage filed by the Carnegie Coal company in favor of the Safe and Deposit Trust company of Pittsburg. This mortgage recited that at a meeting of the stockholders of the coal company in March 21, 1913, it was authorized to increase the indebtedness of the coal company from $800,000 to $1,657,000 by issuing bonds in the sum of $1,000 each, these to be given the glass company as a part of the purchase money on the property sold the coal company.

SOWING THE WIND

After the first of next month it will cost every Charleroi family who uses natural gas for fuel and light eight per cent more than it has been costing them. On that date the gas company which has a franchise in this borough for dispensing this commodity has announced a net increase in rates of two cents a thousand cubic feet over the present rate.

Whether or not this rate is warranted by decreasing supply and increasing cost of production, the Mail does not know. If the rate of profit is based on watered or over-capitalized stock, as in the case of many corporations, then there is no warrant for the advance. Eight percent of an increase on every item of expenditure for the necessities of life at one fell swoop is a serious problem for the wage-earner and the consumer in humble circumstances.
This is more than the profit on legiti-mate business—merchandising—where a dry goods or grocery firm is very well content to realize a net profit of six or seven per cent on the annual business. This turn of the screw means less comfort, more sacrifices and a lowering of the standard of living with many families in Charleroi alone. The income will have to be stretched to cover this increase just as it will have to be further stretched when the screw elsewhere is given a turn during the year, as it undoubtedly will be.

While the consumer and wage earner have to make constant sacrifices to meet the increased cost of living, there seems to be no disposition on the part of corporations and investors to make a like sacrifice in the way of accepting less profit, dividends and interest. Thus far, it is all take and no give, but there will inevitably come a time when the worm must turn, when the last straw is added to the burden that can no longer be borne.
Unless the dividends and profits bear a corresponding sacrifice with labor, the weight cannot be borne.
These dividends are based on fictitious securities. It is no wonder that strikes break out spontaneously, and unless a readjustment is made at once the crop of wind that has been sown will reap a most beautiful and devastating whirlwind.

A New York girl is going to wed the man who shot her five times. It seems to be a case of persuasive argument.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"If I had any idea that President Wilson was not a truly great man before his election, it is dispelled by his actions after his inauguration, particularly in regard to his appointments," said a prominent local Democrat today. "President Wilson is surrounding himself with his friends, and he is rewarding the ones who are really responsible for Democratic success in various sections of the country, instead of taking on the political hacks and heelers who have been hangers-on all their lives."

"Had one of the old-time Democratic politicians been nominated and elected instead of President Wilson, the very first thing the former would have started would be the work of building up a political machine.
Bryan, who has in reality kept alive the spark of true Democracy in this country, would never have been recognized, and all appointments would have gone to the political heelers who were expected to line up the boys in their respective districts.
The ones who really did the work and who by their party loyalty and principles made Democratic victory possible, would never have gotten a thing."

It is stated that President Wilson signified his desire that W. H.
Berry of Pennsylvania be given the very best available position in federal patronage of the state. As a professional machine politician Berry was not recognized by the Pennsylvania Democratic organization. He was valuable in making a fight, where it was a case of standing up in order to be knocked down, and his work in this respect has materially strengthened the party in this state, and paved the way for future success. In machine politics Berry would have gotten nothing, and yet he has done more than any one man, perhaps to strengthen the Democratic party in the state.

"Where President Wilson is making a ten-strike, is insurrounding himself with his friends—the ones who really made his success possible. Recognition of worth and efficiency is one of the true elements of greatness, and in following out this principle instead of trying to build up a political machine for the old-time hangers-on and ward heelers, the president is making a departure that stamps him among the few high officials in public life who have the courage of their convictions."

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.

Music and comedy mingles merrily at the Palace this week, when the vaudeville bill opened Thursday night for the balance of the week. The Gotham City Trio, the largest number on the bill, is composed of two men and one woman, who are very clever comedians, and who present a melange of music and fun. Perhaps the most pleasing number on the bill is the Milo Duo, who are musical artists, although they inject a little comedy in with some most excellent instrumental music. Milo is a violinist and trombone artist of rare ability while Miss Milo is equally skillful on the piano and cornet. In addition to classical selections on the violin Milo virtually makes, as he expresses it, "the fiddle talk," giving a number of imitations that are most realistic. Not only does he imitate most perfectly birds and animals, but he also simulates the human voice, which does not require much imagination to interpret the words. "Oh, you Kid!" "You son-of-a-gun!" and similar expressions, the instrument is made to say almost perfectly, as well as a small girl reciting "Mary Had a Little Lamb" at school. Miss Milo performs the rare feat of playing the cornet with a piano accompaniment at the same time. "Paris Green," the Monologist, in topical songs and monologues, is a pleasing entertainer, and the bill is well balanced throughout. The vaudeville bill is further augmented Friday with Pathe's Weekly, while the moving picture service is changed nightly. For next Monday the Palace will present the "The Prisoner of Zenda" in motion picture drama as given by James K. Hackett and his company. This is Daniel Frohman's version.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.

"The Passing Show of 1912," which will play a return engagement at the Alvin Theatre, week of April 11, is an attempt to graphically present for the entertainment of playgoers a revue of the comic aspects of many important events, political, theatrical and otherwise. The revue, patterned after the Parisian idea of a kaleidoscope, is in two acts. Show of 1912" with Charles Ross, Trivie Fuganza, and a company of 80 will present revues of all the latest dramatic successes, including "Kismet," "Bought and Paid For," "Bunty Pull the Strings," "A Butterfly on the Wheel," "The Typhoon," "The Pirates of Penance," "The Quaker Girl" and "Oliver Twist." The original company in its entirety will return to Pittsburgh after having a record breaking run at the other well known artists in the cast are Eugene and Willie Howard, Texas Guinan, Clarence J. Harvey, Louis Brunelle, Ernest Hare, Albert Henson, Loretta Healy, Daniel Harris, George Moon, Betty Scott, and Adelaide and J. J. Hughes.

HEALTHY WOMEN SCARCE

Is the Verdict of Scientific Investigation.

How many women do not know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run-down, thin, nervous, tired and devitalized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. W. G. Ritchie, Patchogue, N. Y., says: "Vinol is certainly the best tonic I have ever taken. I was run down and tired all the time, but, thanks to Vinol, I am feeling all right again."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Pipers Drug Store.

GAS PRICE ADVANCED FOR LOCAL CONSUMERS

Price Will be 30 Cents
Per Thousand With
3 Cents Discount

NOTICE ISSUED TODAY

Greensboro Gas Company
Publishes Fact-Present

Proof that the Mail's source of information was good when several weeks ago it announced the intention of the Greensboro Gas company to raise the price of gas in Charleroi, was verified today when official notice was given that the rate will be raised to 30 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The new rate will go into effect, as stated by the notice printed in another column after the reading of the meters in April, which means the first of May.

According to the new rating domestic consumers will pay 30 cents per thousand cubic feet with a discount of three cents per thousand on bills paid on or before the 10th of each month.

At the present time Charleroi consumers are paying 27 cents per thousand cubic feet, with a reduction of two cents on every thousand for prompt payment. This rate has been in effect only three or four years.

The former rate was 25 cents per thousand cubic feet with ten per cent of a discount on the whole bill for prompt payment. When the increase was declared some protest was made but not of such nature as to have any effect.

NO FEES FOR COAL AND IRON POLICE

In an opinion handed down by Judge McIlvaine in court at Washington Wednesday it is decided that coal and iron police cannot collect fees as constables, although they can act in that capacity. The decision is based on the fact that the coal and iron police are private officers, paid by a private employer, although sworn in as peace officers of the state.

The case was based on a suit against Samuel J. Ansil and John Channing, coal and iron policemen employed by the Vesta Coal company, which was brought by H. B. Lake constable at California. Ansil and Channing were found guilty of extortion in collecting constable fees and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 each, costs and give security for the payment of the same within ten days. The suit was brought more for the purpose of determining the status of the case than for the purpose of punishing the principals.

Monongahela Property

Between 60 and 70 suits in ejectment have been filed by Martha Campbell of Charleroi and others claimants to a large part of the First Ward, Monongahela, comprising the T. H. Williams addition. Six suits were filed Thursday. A large part of this property is improved, houses have been built on it and now by these actions the title to a large number of properties are questioned. The defendants in the actions just filed are Frances Webb, William R. Copeland, Juli P. Rejein, Harriet J. Roth, George Bernart, Nancy Forsythe and Sarah Ann Hodgson.

PROMISE FOR BILL

Harrisburg, April 11.—Although the anti-administration forces are putting up a vicious fight on the public utilities bill, charging that corporations have been taken care of in it, and that the people will get the short end if the bill passes in its present form, it is probable that the measure will get through the house all right, with possibly some amendments. The bill will come up for a hearing Tuesday.

The house amended the administration bill abolishing the factory inspector's department and creating the department of labor and industry, and passed it on to third reading, and it will probably come up for final action Monday. By the amendments 58 inspectors will be created, but the appointment of the entire force will be discretionary with the commissioner of labor.

The semi-monthly pay bill to apply to all the state passed the senate finally and now goes up to the governor. The Steele bill to provide public comfort buildings in all towns above 12,000 population will come up for final passage next week. The law and order committee has reported favorably the bill prohibiting saloons from being open on Memorial, Thanksgiving and Christmas days.

Senator J. Carter Judson has succeeded in resurrecting his bill from the committee in which it was buried, which rips out of office the directors of the poor of Washington county. The senator charges that some Washington county politicians tried to pull one over on him and bury his bill without giving it a chance to be heard in the open. It will now travel the regular route and

District Attorney Richard G. Miller Appears at
Wholesale Applicants

In the Allegheny county court Thursday at Pittsburg District Attorney Richard G. Miller of Washington county testified that fully 38 out of every 40 men convicted of illegal liquor selling purchased their supplies from Allegheny county dealers. His testimony and that of five prisoners taken from this county to appeal in license court caused considerable of a sensation. An attorney representing the Anti-Saloon league startled the court by announcing that someone had broken into his safe and stolen evidence which he expected to use against a wholesaler accused of selling and shipping liquor into Washington county.

District Attorney Miller called the court's attention to the methods of certain dealers in selling liquor in this county. The five prisoners from this county were in charge of Deputy Sheriffs S. Hornbake and H. K. Sarver.

Northside when quizzed by Washington countians admitted that he purchased many thousand barrels of beer from the Zelt Brewing company at Washington, and that most of it was re-shipped into that district but denied having agents out. The applicant said he sent liquor direct to the customers who had sent their orders to him and paid for their goods in advance. Four of the five prisoners testified to having procured liquor from Allen. "Jimmy" West, a prisoner testified that he had been employed by Allen to distribute circulars and order blanks for him, for which he received $6 a week.

Paul Wuesthoff of the P. Paul Wuesthoff company admitted on cross-examination by District Attorney Miller that he had agents in Washington county and paid them a per cent commission on all orders they sent to his company. The case against the wholesale dealers were not finished but are to be concluded today.

Cortlandt Meyers of Tremont Temple, Boston, Mass., will make an address.

Mrs. E. G. Stanley and Mrs. Joseph Shilling will attend from the Charleroi Baptist church, and it is likely others will go from here.

Bridge Bids Are Opened

Sixteen Structures Washed
Floods to be Rebuilt

Bids were opened in the office of County Controller John H. Moffitt Thursday for the erection of 16 county bridges. About 20 or 30 bids were in, and it took the greater part of the afternoon to open and tabulate them. Each bidder states when he can start the work on the bridges, he bids upon, agreeing to forfeit $10 a day for every day held back. These bridges are to replace bridges washed out by the floods of last summer.

DUCKS ARE NUMEROUS

Lawbreaking the Day

ARE SEEN ALONG RIVER

In line with the general inconsistency of things fine game ducks are to be seen along the Monongahela river this morning in flocks, and the game season for ducks is over just one day. Hunters who during the season were unable to bag duck in any quantity this morning saw the ducks and shuddered—shuddered and looked uneasy. Only on Thursday the duck season expired, and why the ducks should show up in such numbers this morning is a problem that scientists and prophets will have to wrestle with. Enthusiastic hunters have enough to do to wrestle against their inclination to go hunting, when they know the state police are here.

BOUGHT LOCAL MINE

Over a million dollars is involved in the transfer of all the lands, coal, property, rights of way, mining rights and privileges composing the mining property known as the Charleroi Coal Works, at Charleroi, to the Carnegie Coal company, according to the deed which was filed in the county recorder's office Thursday. The total consideration was $1,002,600.48.

Generally, the property consists of the various seams of coal and the coal land owned by the Pittsburg Plate Glass company in Fallowfield township and small parcels of land in Charleroi and North Charleroi borough; also seven lots in the Corria and Suttman plan, Charleroi, and a tippie site. Certain mooring rights on the river are included in the transfer, together with a small parcel of land fronting on the Monongahela river.

Another deed was filed wherein the Carnegie Coal company conveys to the Pittsburg Plate Glass company for a consideration of $1 certain coal stratum in Fallowfield township.

The sale of the Plate Glass coal to the Carnegie Coal company was authorized at a meeting of the stockholders of the glass company held in February. In connection with the sale and filed with the deed is a purchase money mortgage filed by the Carnegie Coal company in favor of the Safe and Deposit Trust company of Pittsburg. This mortgage recited that at a meeting of the stockholders of the coal company in March 21, 1913, it was authorized to increase the indebtedness of the coal company from $300,000 to $1,657,000 by issuing bonds to the sum of $1,000 each, these to be given the glass company as a part of the purchase money on the property sold the coal company.

SOWING THE WIND

After the first of next month it
uses natural gas for fuel and light
eight per cent more than it has been
costing them. On that date the gas
borough for dispensing this commodity has announced a net increase
in rates of two cents a thousand
cubic feet over the present rate.

Whether or not this rate is warranted by decreasing supply and
increasing cost of production, the
capitalized stock, as in the case of
expenditure for the necessities of
life at one fell swoop is a serious problem for the wage-earner and the consumer in humble circumstances.
This is more than the profit on legiti-mate business—merchandising—
where a dry goods or grocery firm
profit of six or seven per cent on the annual business. This turn of the screw
and a lowering of the standard of
living with many families in Charleroi alone. The income will have to be stretched to cover this increase
just as it will have to be further
is given a turn during the year, as it undoubtedly will be.

While the consumer and wage
living, there seems to be no disposition on the part of corporations and investors to make a
like sacrifice in the way of accepting less profit, dividends and interest. Thus far, it is all take and
a time when the worm must turn,
when the last straw is added to the
burden that can no longer be borne.
Unless the dividends and profits
bear a corresponding sacrifice with
labor, the weight cannot be borne, particularly when sixty per cent of these dividends are based on fictitious earnings. It is no wonder that strikes break out spontaneously, and unless a readjustment is made at once the crop of wind that
beautiful and devastating whirlwind.

A New York girl is going to wed
the man who shot her five times. It seems to be a case of persuasive
argument.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"If I had any idea that President Wilson was not a truly great man
before his election, it is dispelled by
his actions after his inauguration,
particularly in regard to his appointments," said a prominent local Democrat today. "President Wilson is surrounding himself with his friends,
really responsible for Democratic
country, instead of taking on the
political hacks and heelers who have
been hangers-on all their lives."

"Had one of the old-time Democratic politicians been nominated and elected instead of President Wilson,
the very first thing the former would
have started would be the work of
building up a political machine.
Bryan, who has in reality kept alive
the spark of true Democracy in this country, would never have been recognized by the political heelers who have gone to the political heelers
boys in their respective districts. The ones who really did the work
principles made Democratic victory
possible, would never have gotten a
thing."

"It is stated that President Wilson signified his desire that W. H.
Berry of Pennsylvania be given the
eral patronage of the state. As a professional machine politician Berry
was not recognized by the Pennsylvania Democratic organization. He
was valuable in making a fight,
where it was a case of standing up
work in this respect has materially
strengthened the party in this state,
and paved the way for future success. In machine politics Berry
would have gotten nothing, and yet
he has done more than any one man
perhaps to strengthen the Democratic party in the state."

"Where President Wilson is making a ten-strike is surrounding himself with his friends—the ones who really
made his success possible. Recognition of worth and efficiency is one
of the true elements of greatness,
and in following out this principle
instead of trying to build up a political machine for the old-time hangers-on and ward heelers, the presi-
stamps him among the few high of-
courage of their convictions."

If there is a delay in shipments

The Congressional idea of a good

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.

Music and comedy mingles merrily at the Palace this week, when the vaudeville bill opened Thursday night for the balance of the week. The Gotham City Trio, the largest number on the bill, is composed of two men and one woman, who are very clever comedians, and who present a melange of music and fun. Perhaps the most pleasing number on the bill is the Milo Duo, who are musical artists, although they inject a little comedy in with some most excellent instrumental music. Milo is a violinist and trombone artist of

sent for the entertainment of playgoers a revue of the comic aspects of many important events, political, theatrical and otherwise. The revue, patterned after the Parisian idea of a kaleidoscope almanac, is in two acts. Show of 1912" with Charles Ross, Trixie Friganza, and a company of 80 will present revues of all the latest dramatic successes, including "Kismet," "Bought and Paid For," "Bunty Pulls the Strings," "A Butterfly on the Wheel," "The Typhoon," "The Pirates of Penance," "The Quaker Girl" and "Oliver Twist." The original company in its entirety will return to Pittsburgh after
